WESTERLY MAN KINGSTON JUDGE

David Robinson Decides in Firemen's Muster—How the Contest Went—Good Crowd for Closing Day—Results of Races—North Stonington Young Man in District Court—John S. Coy Recalls Governor Sprague's Nomination.

The Kingston fair closed Friday, the day being devoted to the children, who were admitted to the grounds free, and there were special exercises for their edification, before the horse races and firemen's muster were called. While the number in attendance was not as large as on the previous day, still it was a record gathering for Friday and the exhibits were kept intact until the field events closed.

The annual muster of the Rhode Island State Firemen's league there were only four entries each in the hose race and engine pulling contests. The Narragansett Engine company of North Kingston took the draw for the engine pulling contest and was first. The Narragansett Engine company of Bristol second, the King Philip fire engine company of Bristol third and the East Greenwich Fire company fourth. The first draw for the hose reel contest went to the Phenix fire department, second to the Narragansett Engine company, third to the Narragansett Engine company, fourth to the Narragansett Engine company.

There were 15 minute tests in the engine pulling contest and with these results: East Greenwich first, throwing a stream 170 feet and 9 inches, prize $75; King Philip, third, $30; Narragansett, fourth, $25. The silver cup offered by Mrs. Rowland G. Hazard, for the company making the best appearance in the parade, was awarded to the Narragansett Engine company.

Historical Mack made a new track record for the Kingston track, winning the first heat in the 219 class in 2:15 1-4, and was second in the other two heats. The race was won by Peach Blossom. After the first heat the horses made the mile in regular order. The second heat was won by Peach Blossom. The third heat was won by Peach Blossom.

Henry Solovitzky, a peddler, is the owner of a blind horse which he is in his business, but the chances are that he will get another horse or engage in another line of trade. The horse was left alone in Canal street, Friday morning and probably tired of standing under the sun's hot rays, he sought to seek shade and made for the saloon of Joseph Grills. He could not see his way to the entrance and walked against an iron pipe railing with such force that the railing gave way and the horse and wagon were precipitated a distance of four feet. During the fall there was a loud crash of glass from a smashed window on the side of the building and the animal, a chestnut, was left alone in the street.

The horse was terribly cut by the glass in the neck and left shoulder, so much so that the animal has probably gone the length of his usefulness and will be put to death to relieve his suffering. Dr. Conner, health officer of the town of Stonington, happened to see the bleeding animal and the owner and others attempting to check the flow of blood. He reported the case to Chief of Police Brown, and Dr. Thomas E. Robinson, veterinarian, was summoned and gave the animal temporary treatment, as he was unable to do more.

The Clarks and White Rocks will play the deciding baseball game of the series on the Thread Mill grounds Saturday afternoon.

Grace Methodist church, which has been closed for repairs several weeks, will be reopened Sunday. The interior has been remodeled and refurbished.

Now that the Kingston fair is over, it has been suggested that the grandstand be given a thorough cleaning on day or two before the 1916 fair opens. The uneven and unsightly cobblestone driveway between the Washington Trust company building and the Nash store is to have granolithic pavement.

Rev. F. Stewart Kinley conducted the funeral service of Mrs. Alfred H. Pollock, nee Bagley, at the Rest in River Bend cemetery, Thursday afternoon.

The ordinance for the regulation of jitney buses requires that the fares to be charged be posted on the front of each licensed vehicle. The size or style of the lettering is not specified and some of the jitney men have the prices lead penciled, and very small at that. William Henry of Providence, the young man who suffered a fracture at the third vertebra by striking bottom while diving at the Watch Hill beach ten weeks ago, is making gradual recovery. Dr. John Champlin says that the patient is now able to turn his head to some extent and both legs and arms, which were paralyzed, now respond to sensation and motion.

"Gadson is a man whose distinguishing trait is self-approval." "I understand now why everybody says he is easy to please."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

IS YOUR TOILET SOAP SAFE?

Many toilet soaps contain harsh, injurious alkalis. Soap containing Resinol is absolutely no free alkali, and to it is added the Resinol medication. This gives it soothing, healing properties which clear the complexion, comfort tender skins and keep the hair healthy.

PLAINFIELD

Clerks of Two Caucuses Must Give Information to Secretary of State—Charles Goldstein, Suit Club Promoter, Still Missing.

The intense heat Thursday caused the schools in Central Village to close. Miss Lillian Marshall returned Thursday evening after three weeks' visit to Danielson, Dayville and Waukegan, Ind.

The K. O. S. P. society of St. Paul's Episcopal church is planning a social and dance.

Charles Tucker, who is connected with the freight department of the New York, Haven and Hartford railroad at Plainfield, returned Friday after a week vacation, part of which was spent at the Rhode Island state fair at Kingston, R. I.

Must Explain to Secretary of State.

The clerks of the democratic caucuses which were held in Central Village Monday night have been called upon by the secretary of state to fill out further information before he gives his verdict on which slate will be accepted. Each faction claims that its caucus, while the other was held illegally.

Although a thorough investigation has been carried out by the authorities and members of the various croquet clubs whose grounds were used for the caucus, no one has been able to find any clue that would lead to the identity of the malefactor.

Fred Racine, who has been ill, is again attending to his duties at his store.

Goldstein Still Missing.

Nothing has been heard from Charles Goldstein, the tailor who slipped out of town the other day with about $250. Goldstein was running what was known as a suit club. He invited about 40 men and young men to contribute $1 per week for a number of weeks. The end of the specified time each would receive a suit or overcoat. In order to get the money, Goldstein drew a name of one of the members of the suit club every week and the lucky member would receive his suit without further payment.

FUNERALS.

William Knight.

The funeral of William Knight was held Friday afternoon in Flat Rock. Only immediate relatives and friends were present at the service.

Mrs. Fred Kershaw.

The funeral of Mrs. Fred Kershaw took place Friday afternoon in the Village. Friday afternoon service was held at St. Paul's Episcopal church by Rev. J. H. George. There were about 25 persons in attendance. Burial was at the Plainfield cemetery.

Brevities.

There were no sessions in the Plainfield schools Friday on account of the heat.

STONINGTON

Town Meeting to Be Held in the Evening—Two Democrats Decline Nomination—Victor McCabe Killed.

The annual meeting of the town of Stonington will be held in Borough hall Monday evening, which will be an innovation, as heretofore all town meetings have been held in the morning. There is considerable business to be transacted and it is expected that the session will last at least two hours.

George A. Wheeler, nominated by the democrats as associate candidate for selectman with Joseph W. Chesbro, the present democratic representative on the board, has declined the nomination. The town committee has filled the vacancy on the ticket by substituting ex-representative Wallbridge, formerly of Stafford Springs, but now a resident of Old Mystic.

The registrars of the Second district, Pawcatuck, have received 90 applications to be made voters and 10 applications for restoration to the voting list.

It was Victor McCabe, not Edward, who was killed at the Elm street railroad crossing Thursday. In the excitement the name of Edward, a brother, was given to Medical Examiner Stanton.

Rev. Clayton A. Burdick of Westerly will supply the pulpit of the First Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

Elden L. Wells, who has been on special duty at Kingston during fair week, has returned to duty as crossing tender at Elm street.

Having completed their visit with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Shackley, Joseph Curtin and John Albee have returned to their home in Rockville.

Mrs. Henry Robinson Palmer and child, Lewis Babcock, Henry R. Palmer, Jr., and Miss Della Babcock, are visiting Dr. Edward Streeter and family at their summer residence, Upper Cross, South Hamilton, Mass.

Dr. Streeter recently purchased the Red Brook farm, Stonington, property of the late Thomas Streeter.

The Holy Name society members will receive communion Sunday morning in St. Mary's church at the 8 o'clock mass.

Blouses For Fall Wear

Each season brings with its coming new models, many times the changes being slight, but serving to mark the difference between the strictly new and the older ones. We pride ourselves that in the later arrivals in this department we are able to show the most correct styles charmingly wrought in dainty materials. We have what you want.

WASH BLOUSES for 98c

The price is low but the styles and weaves are surprisingly pretty and the workmanship is far above the many cheap blouses which are upon the market. Some of these in fine voile with fancy stripes and trimming of organdie are just as pretty as they can be.

VOILE AND ORGANDIE BLOUSES for $1.98

The longer sleeve is a feature of the styles for Fall and Winter, but the low neck models are favored so most of these are so arranged that they may be worn either high or low. They are daintily trimmed with Val. lace.

CREPE-DE-CHINE BLOUSES at $3.48 and $5.98

Crepe-de-Chine is still the favorite even for wear with the new military suits and these new models with pleated or fancy fronts are most correct. Some of them have the convertible collar for either high or low neck effect.

TAFFETA SILK BLOUSES at $4.50 and $5.98

Popular plaid effects, stripe designs and the more severe tailored models all are shown. Most have the long sleeve with turn-back cuff and in many the collar may be arranged for either high or low neck effect. They are all very stylish.

WHITE WASH SKIRTS at LESS THAN HALF PRICE

We are going to dispose of the balance of the skirts in the novelty honeycomb weave at a price less than half the one first marked. They were intended to sell for $1.50. All have the patch. We are going to dispose of the balance of these skirts in the novelty honeycomb weave at a price

The Reid & Hughes Co

Altitudes in Arizona. The highest point in the State of Arizona thus far determined by the United States Geological Survey is the San Francisco Peak triangulation station, in Coconino County, 15,611 feet above mean sea level. This elevation is given in a list of more than 1,500 bench marks placed by the United States Geological Survey and the Coast and Geodetic Survey contained in Bulletin 573, entitled, "Results of Spirit Leveling in Arizona, 1899 to 1914, inclusive." The bulletin also contains a list of more than 150 secondary elevations from records and topographic maps of the Geological Survey, including altitudes of well-known summits.

The new bulletin is one of a series of similar reports being published by the Geological Survey and should be of considerable advantage to surveyors and engineers who have occasion to use bench-mark elevations in laying out railroads or other lines where accuracy of elevation is necessary. The report is, in fact, a guide to the bench marks that have been set by the Government engineers, for while the numbers stamped in the bench mark represent the elevations to the nearest foot as determined by the levelman, the bulletin gives the exact elevation to thousands of a foot of the point thus marked.
